Getting there

Metz is ideally served by motorways (A4 and A31), TGV train services (Metz-Ville and Lorraine TGV Station) and the nearby airports of Metz-Nancy, Luxembourg and Saarbrücken.

By TGV, Metz is just 85 minutes from Paris, 71 minutes from Roissy Charles-de-Gaulle, and 50 minutes from Strasbourg.

Metz, a creative and sustainable Eurométropole

Metz Eurométropole lies at the confluence of the Moselle and Seille rivers, 85 minutes from Paris by TGV, 1 hour from Luxembourg and Germany, and less than 3 hours from Brussels. As the capital of urban ecology, it offers a constellation of different ways to experience light: shadow effects and halos reflected on the water, the magical lanterns of the Christmas market, shining stained glass windows and Jaumont stone...

► Looking for wide open spaces and nature?

Explore the Mont Saint-Quentin, take a breath of fresh air in the multitude of gardens in the Eurométropole, enjoy bike rides or boat trips... Metz is ranked France's 3rd greenest city, with 255 km of greenways and cycle paths.

► Looking for art and architecture?

From the Gallo-Roman era to the present day, this open-air museum is an invitation to venture into the heart of Europe. Top sights: the Centre Pompidou-Metz modern and contemporary art museum, Saint Etienne's Cathedral, the Cour d'Or Museum - Metz Eurométropole, not to mention the Medieval and Renaissance heritage, the 18th century squares (the Opera-Theatre is the oldest working theatre in France), the fortifications (the Porte des Allemands is a little fortress), Metz Railway Station, voted three times running "most beautiful railway station in France".

► Prefer a culinary experience?

Let the restaurant chefs, producers and catering professionals take you on a culinary tour of local expertise. Mirabelle plums - celebrated every year at the height of summer - and the AOC wines of Moselle*, whose grape varieties marry perfectly with quiches, pies and hotpots and much more, are emblematic of the area.

► And what about a bucolic escapade? Wine-producing villages, fortified churches, forts, castles, the Gallo-Roman aqueduct await you.

Carol and her team are ready to help you create your own tailored programme.

Benefits:

► A single point of contact, available 5 days a week for personalised advice

► No administrative fees, and quotes and proposals sent within 7 days

► A team of qualified multilingual guides and lecturers who are passionate about their subject.

In addition, as required by law, Agence Inspire Metz has protection in order to refund your payments and, if transport is included in the package, to repatriate you if it becomes insolvent.

Essential rights provided for by EU Directive 2015/2302 transposed into the Tourism Code:

Travellers will receive all essential information on the package before signing the travel package contract.

The organiser and the retailer will be responsible for the satisfactory performance of all travel services included in the contract.

Travellers will receive a telephone number or the details of a point of contact for contacting the organiser or retailer.

Travellers can transfer their package to another person, giving reasonable notice and paying any applicable additional charges.

The package price may only increase if specific costs increase (e.g. fuel costs) and if this possibility is explicitly mentioned in the contract, and cannot in any case be altered less than twenty days before the start of the package. If the price increase is more than 8% of the package price, the traveller may cancel the contract. If the organiser reserves the right to increase the price, the traveller is entitled to a price reduction if the corresponding costs are reduced.

Travellers may cancel the contract without paying any cancellation fees and be refunded in full for payments made if one of the essential elements of the package, other than price, is significantly changed. If, before the start of the package, the professional responsible for the package cancels it, travellers may obtain a refund and, where applicable, compensation.

Travellers may cancel the contract without the payment of a cancellation fee before the start of the package in exceptional circumstances, for example if there are serious security problems at the destination location which are likely to affect the package.

In addition, travellers may, at any time before the start of the package, cancel the contract, paying the appropriate and justifiable cancellation fee.

If the organiser or retailer becomes insolvent after the package begins, the sums paid will be refunded. If the organiser or retailer cannot provide important elements of the package as planned, other appropriate provisions must be offered to travellers, without any price supplement. Travellers may cancel the contract without the payment of a cancellation fee if the services are not performed in accordance with the contract, if this causes significant disruption to the provision of the package and if the organiser does not remedy the problem.

Travellers are also entitled to a price reduction and/or compensation if the travel services are poorly provided or not provided at all.
